German Prisoner PG 8-38; SCHULZ, Oberstleutnant, German. Former Letter and was in the vanguard of the army which entered Athens and Greece in 1941 was sent to Warsaw as head of a Gruppe III Abwehrkommando responsible for a number of Abwehrtruppe on the Eastern Front; still at Warsaw in April 1941, but at Budapest and Breslau in May 1941.

STATUS: London, REFERENCE 195, Leitstelle III Ost (Walli III)

1941-Feb 1945 Before end of '41 Abw Kdo IV was established under command of Major (later Oberst) and in early '45 Oberst) SCHULZ, as an advanced base of Amt Aul/Aul/Abt III with function of supervising activities of growing number of III Kdo and Gruppe in the East. He was set up at Subjowek a few miles outside of Warsaw, where already since Jun '41 the controlling staff of Abw I Gruppe (later Kdo) under Major RING had been situated with the cover name of "Stab Walli". Very soon Abw Kdo IV became known as Walli III, a name which was retained until the collapse in 1945. SCHULZ, in addition to being head of Walli III, appears also to have been head of a combined staff comprising Walli I, II and III until May 1942, when Walli I broke away.

(Note: Oberstlt. Hermann RING, 1941-45, Leiter, Leitstelle I Ost (Walli I), MIA-2563 states that Subject was RING's superior in Warsaw in 1941; RING states Subject allegedly was "mortal enemy of RING".)

Walli III was regarded until the absorption of the Abwehr by the NSDAP in summer 1944 as an advanced base of Amt Aul/Aul. It was responsible for the administration of all the Kommandos and Gruppe on the Eastern Front, for their training and equipment, and issued directives on questions of policy. It also collated reports of all III mobile units and distributed summaries on an army group level as well as reporting to Amt Aul/Aul.

A school for German personnel of all PWs and PWs on Eastern Front was established at Walli III's HQ at Subjowek, probably from 1942-44. It was known as KASCH (Kasche Deutsche Abwehr Schule) and was under the direct supervision of Oberst. SCHULZ and Major RINGHOUT (Deputy Leiter, 1942-45).

RING SCHULZ was a permanent instructor. Instruction was given on the organization of the Russian Intel. Services and on the theory of III P work; attention was also paid to the sphere of influence of GPR, SD detachments, and Abwehr units.

Walli III did not itself employ agents and appears not to have interfered in the day-to-day running of the PWs under its command.

Released from American POW camp. (see following entry 7 Oct 48)

POST-WW-II ACTIVITIES

1947, Sep Following British summary of "covert" American intel. net-works functioning in British Zone/Germany. T707 ECIC (Op. MUSTY support unit) checked case-by-case with ZIPPER (then MUSTY), whose comment on Case 24 STERNBERG was that it had nothing to do with Op. MUSTY but Oberst MAREKIS (possibly Ernst MAREKIS b. 26.9.1888) "perhaps works for SCHMALSCHLAGER." (POB comment: ? contradicts entry 7 Oct 48).

1948, Oct 7 Reported date of release from American POW camp. Subsequently re-sided Nuernberg, Buehlstr 8, became partner in BASSELACHER & Co. (tel. 53844), Nuernberg, Puerbachstr 57 (offices, lace mfg firm); another report states his wife a wealthy woman with a toy factory.

1949, Jul MOS has infrequent contact with Subject as AVOSKI. In ECIC until about this time and "since then diligently trying to avoid getting involved in intelligence activities."

1950, Oct Same Ritter von LEX in contact with Subject, whom he wishes to establish as outside chief agent, possibly for SovZone. Pavlo DMITRIYEV & Paul DEIMACH (deceased Nov '50), Ukrainian who figured in CAPELIN (V-13611) reports, went to Nuernberg to speak with SCHMALSCHLAGER, under whom he had served in Abwehr (Warsaw) and who later attended his funeral.

1951, Mar CAPELIN reported Alfred LOEWENKIN asked Subject for intel. job with BfV (Bundesamt fuer Verfassungsschutz) in Koeln or "Informationsamt" (ITU) in Bonn; Subject said he had no intel. connection and would have none unless a German Army existed and he could join mil. intel.; LOEWENKIN learned from Christian BOITE (Bayerischen Innenministerium) that SCHMALSCHLAGER had been the loser of 2 candidacies mentioned for Chief, Bavarian LfV (Landesstelle des Bundesamtes f.V., Bayern). LOEWENKIN had offered himself as double agent to Gerhard SCHACH (ITU) (intel. service run by Friedrich Wilhelm HEINE for Joachim OETTER).

1951, May In May, LONGWELL, on basis of report from Otto KUNZEL in Weimar, offered Joachim GOTTEN (BLANK Office, Bonn) opportunity to establish contact with Sovietia. (Note: it appears LONGWELL, a Soviet agent with SCHMALZGLANZER probably his target).
Jun ZIPPER declared it had no contact connection with Subject. (UTILITY statement to []).

1952, Feb Dr. Emeric OPZAK (V-7500), who assisted Subject in his CE post in W II Eastern Front, maintaining contact for ZIPPER with SCHMALZGLANZER in hope of reactivating, through Subject, some of his pre-machine gun tasks made when Subject was secret UIC officer in Austria.
Dr. Kurt KUNZEL told POB's Alfred D. Jones that Subject is good CE man but his "expense account" too high for ZIPPER, and related Subject's visit to front with private car and barber.

Subject authored a study of W II intel. experiences, "Muller's War Refugee, Spezialgebiet UIC", probably id/w "Guide for Intel. Interviewers of Eastern Cases" published by EIC and forwarded to Washington in Aug 1948 under NGA-2303.

ZIPPER

1953, Feb UTILITY recruited Subject.

1955, Mar Subject is a principal agent run directly by OAKS-REILZ, ZIPPER HQ CE officer (Sec 127).
